*Warm August days, both slow and bright, Tea and friendship, pure delight.
Simple moments, routines true, August brought its joy anew.*

As we welcome September, we look back on a gentle and sunshine-filled August here at - a month of quiet routine, warm company and one very special celebration.

Employee of the Month

We are delighted to congratulate Shamsun Nahar on being awarded Employee of the Month. Shamsun is a truly empathetic and passionate member of the team, whose kindness and care shine through in everything she does for our residents. We are so grateful to have her as part of our home.

Congratulations, Shamsun and thank you for all that you do!

Celebrating Sr Clara's Feast Day

A real highlight of August was celebrating St Clare of Assisi's Feast Day, in honour of our Sr Clara. Fellow residents gathered for a lovely tea party in her honour and we were delighted to welcome the FMSL Sisters, who joined the celebrations and paid Sr Clara a special visit of their own. It was a warm and heartfelt occasion, filled with good company, conversation, and a real sense of togetherness.

Birthday Celebration

Birthdays are always a special time to celebrate and this month we were delighted to mark the birthday celebration of our wonderful residents.

There were plenty of smiles, laughter and lovely moments shared as we came together to celebrate their special days. It was a joy to see everyone joining in, sharing warm wishes, and helping to make each birthday feel truly special.

Arts, Activity and Wellbeing

August kept everyone busy and engaged with a full and varied programme of activities. Residents enjoyed creative arts and crafts afternoons, stayed active with regular exercise sessions and relaxed with well-deserved pamper sessions. With the summer sunshine continuing, our garden sessions remained a favourite, giving residents the chance to enjoy the fresh air, tend to the flowers and simply unwind outdoors together.

Everyday Routine

Alongside these activities, August also brought plenty of comfortable, familiar routine - relaxed TV afternoons and the everyday rhythms that residents enjoy. These quieter moments remain just as important, offering comfort, consistency and time to simply relax together.

Summer Snapshots

As we move into September, we look forward to cosier days ahead and many more happy moments together.

Thank you to all our residents, families, friends, and staff for making St Anne's such a warm and welcoming community. Your continued support and kindness mean so much to us all.
